
Title: Hope for AotA

Author: Canto Canzone

We used to wander all in gold --
Beyond the wood,
beyond the wold
But aye, we've gotten
oh, so old --
The bones are weak,
if not still bold.
We used to wander far
and wide
From forests to the mountainside
And, aye, we laughed,
and too we cried.
But always full of righteous pride
And so those days
have slipped away
And now it is another day.
And shall we now be
still that way?
And win the war and
fight the fray?~
